

Hi! My name is

I am a trained Diabetic Alert Dog!

I am pretty cute, right? Guess what?

I am a dog with a VERY IMPORTANT JOB.

You might not be able to tell right away but I am a superhero dog that needs to be able to save my human with YOUR help!

PLEASE LET ME DO MY JOB BY NOT TALKING, TOUCHING, OR MAKING EYE CONTACT WITH ME.

I need to be able to pay attention to my human and help them exactly when they need me. If I am distracted I won't be able to help them.

Can you help me do my job?
Can you show that you are a superhero too?
I know you can!

WOOF WOOF!
